

Regulations of the Fredro's Pen Best Book Award for the year 2010

1. The goal of this competition is to recognise and reward the best books published in Poland and abroad in the year 2010. Assessed will be the quality of edition of the books.
2. Subject to assessment may be the books of all PUBLISHERS participating in the Wroclaw Book Fair 2010.
3. Each PUBLISHER may submit 5 titles. In the case of the multi-volume publications assessed will only be the editions completed in this year and presented as complete ones. The publishing series may be represented by any number of titles published in 2010.
4. The jury of the Best Book Award is appointed by the organisers of the Wroclaw Book Fair.
5. The Fredro's Pen will be awarded to the six best titles selected by the jury. From among them selected will be the Book of the Year 2010.
6. To participate in this contest a PUBLISHER has to send a filled out participation application with 2 copies of the book it recommends to the following address: Miejska Biblioteka Publiczna, Biuro WPK, ul. Ruska 60/61 lok. 11, 50-079 Wrocław by 20.11.2010.
7. The jury's verdict will be announced during the grand opening of the Promotions on December 2, at 12:00 hours.
8. The titles so-recognised will be exhibited during the Promotions.
9. The books that the ORGANISER will receive will be donated, in the name of the participants in the Fredro's Pen Award, to selected libraries and institutions in Wrocław and Lower Silesia.